Hardly a day has passed recently without the progress Artificial Intelligence (AI) is making garnering press attention throughout the world. Of course, AI has also attracted substantive coverage in automotive around autonomous vehicles. Less well known is AI's use case in the field of vehicle interiors, particularly around In-Vehicle-Infotainment and the in-cabin experience.

With reports that consumers are starting to push back against the vogue for sleek looking, but frustrating to use, in-vehicle interfaces AI is set to be the vehicle interior designer's secret weapon. AI could succeed in making more drivers and passengers receptive to their minimalist interiors and could banish buttons forever.
